

3rd April 2007 Bunny Run One (The Chilly One) 3mile/300ft

32 year old Great Britain international Alan Buckley, who ran in the World Cross Country championships in Kenya the previous week was the BR1 celebrity and set off the 188 Bunny Runners off on the 3 mile circuit of Penistone Hill, with the field including 65 ladies. He got into the spirit of the event by wearing bunny ears and a bunny nose which complimented his Great Britain tracksuit beautifully. What a night it was as his wife Jo, the recent Yorkshire silver half marathon medallist won the prime Egg Stage in 4-08, only just from England under 14 champion Mel Hyder. Jo continued to blaze a trail to win the ladies race in a new record for the revised route in 18-37, with Keighley and Craven's Helen Glover only 7 seconds behind and young Mel a further 9 seconds adrift. Jo last won this race in 1998 at Bunny Run #3 under her maiden name of Smith, hope she looks after the cuddly perpetual Bunny and cuddles it every night! To round off the Buckley's celebrations the following day saw the popping corks with their first wedding anniversary. Showing no signs of age, 41 year old Ian Holmes, put the youngsters in place setting a new record of 15-15 and winning his 23rd Bunny Run- his first being in 1994 only 13 years ago. He did lose out in the Egg Stage to fleet of foot Matthew Pierson who won in 3-28, and who has all the credentials to win a Bunny soon. Keighley and Craven won both team awards with the men being 4th, Willy Smith, 6th, Steve McDermott and 9th Rob Shaw, whilst the ladies were 2nd, Helen Glover, 6th, Holly Williams and 8th Rosie Hellawell. Rosie also won the first FU14 and celebrates her 13th birthday next week at BR2, so look out for some fun Rosie! Keighley and Craven also supplied first U16 boy Thomas Sessford, while the Under14's went to Ben Marriot of Bingley Harriers. With the race video being shown in the Old Sun Hotel, extensive chocolate prizes and of course the legendary chocolate throw out the atmosphere was eleggtrifying and speggtacular. Winner of the Crosstrax prize shoe draw was Chris Stacy of Otley AC who finished 49th in 19-53. Guess the Winner's Time competition winner was Martin Horbury of K&C - an Easter egg awaits! Next week sees Great Britain junior from the World Cross, Pendle AC's Ben Lindsey don the celebrity ears. Why not look on www.photos-dsb.co.uk for photo's of the event!
