

Everyone loves a Bunny, whether you are young, old, a serious athlete or a fun runner these races seem to have a unique attraction, proved by 251 runners racing round Penistone Hill. This was the third biggest ever field, with the record being 272 from BR3 in 2002, when the races were run on Harden Moor, and that year over 50 army cadets took part. Three records were set, the first incredibly by the oldest competitor, Brian Leathley at a young 76 years he recorded 32-31 to set a new over 70's record, second was in the record number of ladies taking part a fab and inspiring 94 runners. The final record was set by 29 year old Andi Jones, the race winner, this was the slowest ever winning time over a minute outside Ian Holmes' course record of 15 minutes dead set last year. A waterlogged course and fierce strong winds did Andi, fresh from running in the Great Britain team in the World X-Country Championships in Edinburgh two days previous no favours what so ever, as he led throughout winning the Egg Stage in 3-45, before virtually sliding into the finish funnel, due to possibly the wrong choice of shoe. 25 times winner Ian Holmes finished second and first V40 only 23 seconds behind, with England junior International Rob Shaw third. Rob, 18, loves the fells especially the climbing aspect and is realising he has a real talent here, just like his dad David, who finished third V40. Bingley Harrier Sharon Taylor, 28, second in the British Championships last year won her second Bunny Run, the first being in 2005 at BR3, she won here in 19-05 from 22 year old Emily Klee of Leeds City and 14 year old Mel Hyder from Helm Hill who took the FU16's as well, before Anna Anderson led home the Pendle ladies winning team, with Emma Spencer, sixth and first FU14 anchor lady was second FU14 Melissa Berry, 11th. Pendle also supplied the first BU16 in Daniel Evans, just ahead of Joseph Crossfield, the second BU16, Holmfirth Harriers dominated the BU14 category with Tom Halton first in 20-10 from Declan McGivern, with Wharfedale's Ben Johnstone one second behind Declan. The yummy 2kilo chocolate egg prize draw was won by Andrew Biddle, what's the bet this is polished off before next weeks race with the grateful help of Kyle, Grace, Naomi and Faith, mum and dad might get a look in! See you next week for another thrilling chocolate drama, that is the BUNNY RUNS.
