

This was Penistone Hill on a good day. Gale force winds and driving rain, but this couldn't put 19 year old England international Tom Addison off his stride as he won this race for the third year running, all you juniors take heed Tom has not always been 'top dog'. In 1999 at the Withins Quarry runs he finished third in the under 8 race, and has run in all the races throughout the age groups ever since, winning only once in 2004, the under 16 race. He was to the fore throughout, following his cousin Mark who led the field up to Oxenhope Stoop, but Tom fresh from racing for England in the Samarna Gora Mountain Race in Slovenia where he finished 21st, still wasn't too sure of the route and followed 1994 & 2000 winner Andrew Wrench to Top Withins Ruin. From there the speed increased along the tourist path towards Bronte Bridge, here Tom made his move, and by Bronte Bridge had 50 yards on the chasers, just like last year he ran all the steep climb up Bronte waterfalls, but this time decided not to take a dip crossing the water at the top. Still pushing all the way to the finish Tom crossed the line in 45.04 over a minute faster than his winning time last year, Ian Nixon ran his way into second place, while Andrew won the V40 framed picture yet again, and in ninth, 2002 winner Steve Oldfield retained the V50 picture for the fourth year running, and his name is on the V40 picture seven times. 37 year old Ian Taylor, a cyclist come runner, finished an impressive fourth running for the new Craven Energy Tri club, before long time leader Mark Addison in fifth. It would seem that besides being covered in mud from the Skyline terrain, far too many runners were reporting back about a missing paving stone just above Top Withins Ruin, which caused some deep and meaningful discussions with the ground, luckily no serious issues were encountered, however we will be getting in touch with the countryside commission and this 'tombstone' sorry, paving slab will be replaced forthwith.

British and English under 23 fell champion Emma Clayton, who runs in the colours of Scunthorpe, but who lives in Leeds, won the ladies race finishing 42nd overall, 21 year old Emma had Anne Johnson and Haworth GP Jo Buckley for company at Withins Ruin, but like Tom she was far too fleet of foot winning with a minute in hand. 44 year old Anne set a new V40 record improving on Vanessa Peacock's 2005 time by 39 seconds, she also led Calder Valley to the ladies team beer prize with Jo third and Claire Hanson 14th. Tall tales are always told in fell running, and 64 year old Chorley Harrier, Jan Atkins has just added another, as she made the claim 'I'm getting slower', and then proceeded to break her own three year old record by four seconds! Your tongue will drop out Jan, or at least you'll get black spots.

Rat finks away as fifty one under 8 athletes were off at break neck speed along the grassy quarry bottom, to climb to the mass of parents and spectators cheering encouragement high above them. Stoop under 8 winner Matthew Crorken led up the quarry wall, but Logan Hargreaves-Madhas the Soreen under 8 winner picked the best line, from then on the two were neck and neck until the finish where Matthew sprinted away to win by two seconds. 'I thought Logan had won, he seemed to have more power than me, but I surprised myself because I really wanted to win the 'freshly severed foot' for winning. I like parts of the body, the new record showed how competitive it was, so I am really pleased', said Matthew. Matthew runs for the Princess Mary running club who have approximately 170 youngsters enjoying athletics in the Spenborough area. Matthew likes nothing better than eating sticky toffee pudding and watching Merlin on tv, and like his dad is an Arsenal fan. A very competitive Logan of Wharfedale Harriers is always on the look out for races and new challenges, and found one the day before at the Beachy Head Marathon in Eastbourne, where he ran in the 2K race and finished in the top ten, before climbing back into his parents camper van and travelled all the way back to Yorkshire, as he couldn't ever miss a Rat Run! First girl in the under 8's was Keera Nelson of Calder Valley, who was chased home by Laura Knowles and Ellee Keating both of Keighley & Craven, Laura was also the winner of the free prize draw, where she won a tin of Cadbury's Heroes. Ninety youngsters took part in the combined U10, U12, U14 and U16 races, an encouraging 21 up on last year, no time records were broken, but that wasn't down to the calibre or enthusiasm of the athletes, it was simply the awful weather. The troop of regular rattlings didn't disappoint with Declan Bulmer under 16, James Hall under 14, Philip Done under 12, Charlie Lowrie under 10, Rosie Hellowell under 16, Issy Wharton under 12, Lily McGuinness under 10, all winning their age categories, with new rat runner Sarah Hodgson winning the under 14 age group. Rat fever is obviously spreading because this our cheese traps have attracted youngsters from Lancaster & Morecambe AC, City of York, Holmfirth, Newbury, and Qeags Wakefield, who all enjoyed the hard, but quirky races. Many thanks to King Rat, Mike Ayers of Precision Pest Management whose ideas and financial help has enhanced these races and allowed them to grow and flourish, which means a goody bag stuffed full of treats like a sugar mouse, popping candy, a bag of crisps, a tongue painter lolly and of course a Curly Wurly with a prized certificate. What makes this certificate even more special is it's designed by YOU, in the year long competition. 15 year old Rosie Hellowell's design was chosen by Mike for this years certificate, which was kindly printed by Up & Running. Rosie won a Cadbury's tin of Roses, a selection box and a tube of sweets for her winning efforts, and Beatrice Toman, Gabriele Scobie, Zoe Kitching, Matthew Toman, Toby Kitching and Logan Hargreaves-Madhas all won selection boxes and tubes of sweets, while all other entrants won a tube of sweets. So just remember, when you say you're bored, or have nothing to do, get a piece of paper and draw a rat or mouse and see where it takes you. Mike is keen to encourage more fancy dress, he's willing to put plenty of prizes up for you and with it being close to Halloween, spooky ghosts, witches, skeletons, pumpkins or any other scarey costumes are welcome. Remember, it's great to win, so the races are competitive, but for those of you who want more fun than this is a chance to participate and have a scream!
