

With all the chocolate associated with these runs they have always been bunnylicious, but now you could add recordific too. Why because a massive 334 all comers, an improvement of 21 from last week, descended on Penistone Hill to take up the three mile challenge, with seven new records being set. What an amazing sight, to witness all ages, sizes and abilities form a multi coloured snake winding its way over and around the contours of Penistone Hill. 27 year old Tom Adams had the leg speed to hold off England junior, 17 year old, Thomas Sessford's challenge for the Egg Stage, and with it he equaled the record jointly held by Andi Jones and Jack Thompson at 3-23. As usual Mr. Bunny, Ian Holmes sat off the pace, after all he is 44 now! And watched on as the lactic acid took its toll on Tom, Tom, he then eased past to cruise to his 29th Bunny victory. Tom Adams got his second wind, or was it his third? To hold off the England and GB international that is, Adam Osbourne, who two days previous had won the Wardle Skyline. 25 year old Katie Walshaw took the Bunny by the ears to win the Egg Stage in 4-08 and the race comfortably in 17-53 to become the third Holmfirth lady to win a Bunny, Lisa Lacon and Natalie White being the others. Last years FU14 champ, Bo Bo Haywood returned and finished second overall plus first FU14, with FV40 record breaker, Kath Farquhar finishing third, Holly Williams fourth with FU16 Emma Spencer fifth. The team choc went to Holmfirth ladies with Katie, Kath and FU14 Harmonie Waterman, seventh. What a surprise the mild weather has been of late, so you could say the going was, speederific. Three record holders from last week went even speedier, V50 Steve Oldfield improved by 38 seconds, V70 Peter Covey improved by 40 seconds and FV50 Gill Myers fresh from winning in Ireland improved by 12 seconds. Four more speedy superstars joined them as record breakers, V60 Brian Parkinson took 3 seconds off Dave Tait's 2008 time, BU14, Max Wharton took 23 seconds off Marc Scott's 2007 time, FV40 Kath Farquhar took 47 seconds off Alison Bennett's 2007 time and very recent birthday girl Margaret Jagan who turned 60 in the week took 2 minutes 2 seconds off Jan Atkins 2007 time. Two juniors went one step further and ran in fancy dress, Imogen Bristow donned her Tutu whilst Tommy Thorp put on his best bib and tucker, for their efforts they won Easter eggs at the prize giving, where FU14 Issy Wharton won the free guess the winning ladies time Easter egg. See you all next week for more Bunny Mayhem, remember 7-30pm start!!
