

The sun keeps shining and the runners just keep on coming with 296 eager Bunny runners not yet fed up with chasing chocolate. Although shy of last weeks mammoth 334 field this race still bettered previous years records, so it looks like 2010 is the best eggstravaganza ever. Quick off the mark was fancy dress bumble bee, Chris Needham, who flew away at the start although Sam Richards was clipping his wings, but the buzz went out of his legs when 18 year old Sam Tosh hammered past at a great rate of knots. Winner of the last two Egg Stage prizes, Tom Adams, gave chase and approaching the Egg Stage sign a fierce 'Eggpic stage sprint' ensued with a frantic race to the post, Tom narrowly won by the width of his Ilkley vest in 3-29, Sam's legs just couldn't carry him through the line you could see the lactic acid surging through his veins. 33 year old international Adam Osbourne, who couldn't stay with this pace finally caught Tom on the gradual climb to Penistone Hill Quarries, and with Tom still blowing hard Adam opened the winning lead to win his first ever Bunny in 15-26. In his first outing since knee surgery Karl Gray surprised himself and others with second overall and first V40, so all the biking he's been doing has certainly paid off, Tom finished third and leads the series at present, since Mr. Bunny, Ian Holmes, chose to watch his rivals. Young talent is aplenty in these races and once again the BU14 record was taken down a notch, Wharfedale's Under 14 Yorkshire Champion, William Smith has certainly hit form taking seven seconds off Max Wharton's week old time finishing ninth overall with Max only eighteen seconds behind! Three series winners emerged V50 Steve Oldfield, V60 Brian Parkinson and V70 Peter Covey all won again for the third week. The chocoholics of Bingley Harriers dominated the team award again with this week Chris Edwin in fourth, Martin Peace in sixth and Jamie Robinson eleventh. Holmfirth Harriers again supplied the ladies winner with Katie Walshaw winning the Egg Stage again in 4-09 and the race in twenty eighth overall in 17-39, an improvement of nine seconds from last week. Just like BR2 Bo Bo Haywood finished second and first GU14 improving by three seconds, and Kath Farquhar finished third and first FV40 with Emma Spencer fourth and first FU16. Kath is leading the series, and no matter what has won the FV40 with three wins, also series winners are Gill Myers FV50, who broke her week old record by 13 seconds and Margaret Jagan, FV60. Holmfirth girlsies again won the team prize with Katie, Kath and Lucy Griffiths in fifth overall. The Bunnies have even managed to take to air this year with Pulse Radio presenter Becky Holmes taking on the challenge, will she beat her best time of 29-23 next week which was achieved at BR2, this week saw her finish in 30-06. One of her colleagues, Judith Walker has improved every week from 40-00 to now an impressive 37-08, watch out for the Chemical Sisters. Will they push on and do a relay, maybe even recording it for the radio, now there's a challenge! Next weeks race sees overall prizes awarded, with more chocolate and the famous Bunny Beer, which will feature last years series winners Blue Haywood and Ian Holmes and not forgetting flashing teeth for category winners. See you all next week for more Bunny Mayhem, remember 7-30pm start!!
