

This series has been the most successful since they began way back in 1992, with more runners than ever from all walks of life and abilities, the young, the old, the fit, the not so fit, the fast, the not so fast - the Bunnies welcome everyone - it's the taking part that counts, That's why 285 of you turned up on yet another glorious evening. First to do battle were Pulse Radio presenters, Becky Holmes and Alex Duffy, who were given a minutes head start, before the hordes of runners chased them down and it wasn't long before they were swallowed up into the multi coloured snake of athletes. Taking the honours in her fastest ever time of 28-05 was 33 year old Becky, while 24 year old Alex finished in 29-54 some 19 places behind. But fastest off the mark and fleetest of foot was 15 year old Jack Thorp of Bingley Harriers who had the edge over 17 year old, Joe Johnson to win the Egg Stage in 3-25, he then eased off the pace having done his nights work to finish in 65th position, while Johnson held it together a bit more to finish 22nd. Recently married top orienteer, Ian Nixon won his first ever Bunny in 15-39, while Chris Edwin had a tremendous tussle overtaking Tom Adams and Ben Crowther in the last 100 metres to take second. Three records tumbled in the male categories, William Smith improved the BU14 record to 16-18 which also beat Marc Scott's BU16 record, so William now holds both records and on the night finished sixth overall, chased home by first V40 Zip Jones and Anniversary Wa BU14 winner Max Wharton. Just to prove that it's not only young guns that can run fast and furious, V70 Peter Covey improved his own record to 21-12 taking 29 seconds off, while V60, Brian Parkinson took 18 seconds off his record to return a time of 19-41. Wharfedale Harriers took the team with Jonathan Bradshaw, 5th, William Smith, 6th and James Hall, 9th. Katie Walshaw didn't disappoint and won the Egg Stage for the third time in 4-04 and the race for the third time in 17-45 finishing in 26th overall, with three wins the series win was completed. Katie along with Tom Adams the mens series winner will feature on the 2011 Bunny Beer bottle label which was just part of the prize they won. 13 year old Bo Bo Haywood is fast becoming a force to be reckoned with and duly obliged by rewriting Mel Hyder's FU14 and FU16 records, taking 25 seconds off Mel's 2007 FU14 time and 9 seconds off her 2009 time to finish 34th overall in 18-10. Another youngster showing her potential was Harmonie Waterman, who featured in the last Fellrunner this 13 year old finished in third overall just ahead of Sophie Lovell. Holmfirth Harriers with Katie, Harmonie and Lucy Griffiths in 6th clinched the team chocolate eggs again. A big thank you must go to, Steph Thompson the video girl, the Old Sun Hotel staff, Up & Running for race numbers and the biggest thanks of all to our helpers, Wendy Holder, Linda Hargreaves, Emily Wood, Holly Crossfield, Sam Wood, Paul Wood, Shirley Wood, Paul Crabtree, Lawrence Basham and Carol & Michael Fryer. See you all at the Bunny Run Relay – 7-30pm start – teams of 3, try and get there early so we can process the entries.
