

5TH APRIL 2011BUNNY RUN ONE – THE WINDY ONE
3MILE/300FT

The start of the series saw 284 athletes young and old trying their best to stay on their feet as a fierce wind forced them every way except forward, so given these conditions the times achieved are worth at least 2 minutes on a normal windless Tuesday evening. New Bunny Boy Ben Mounsey took the Egg Stage prizes, and with a little more knowledge of the course now, will be a big contender next week. 21 year old England international Tom Addison played it cool, knowing the lactic acid you can build up by going too fast too soon is fatal and used this knowledge to pace it perfectly and win in 15-53 from fellow international Adam Osborne, with another new Bunny runner Tim Ellis third. Series winner last year Katie Walshaw continued her dominance of the Bunnies winning the Egg Stage and the race outright for the fourth time, and finally getting her name on the cuddly bunny perpetual trophy, which is only given out at Bunny One. See you all next week for more Bunny Mayhem, remember 7-15pm start!!
