Comments:

An overcast day with an odd hint of rain did not dampen the spirits of the athletes on this inaugural run at Glaisdale. It might have been chilly but many were looking forward to the Arncliffe Arms chilli at the end. On a serious note some runners were seen not to carry the appropriate kit for winter events and I must give this warning that there will be a kit check at the next two events in particular - you have been warned it is not acceptable behaviour!

Back to the race - the pack set off at a rip with Paul Bulmer soon surging ahead, chased by a whole group of runners. Paul was well clear at check two and too quick for the camera person. The second pack stayed together in a group until CP3 where four broke away. It was just after this that Dan jumped over a large adder and Charlie just behind had to deviate and shout other runners aside as it was somewhat agitated - so much for Dan's little shortcut! At the finish Paul was well clear with Robert Addyman having his best run of the season in 2nd closely followed by Dan and Charlie.

In the women's event Fiona Blackett and Morag Stead had a good battle early on with Fiona getting ahead on the rougher ground a late fall meant a very nasty cut for Fiona and we wish her a rapid recovery from the resultant damage to her knee. Loftus and Whitby were the Team Winners from Esk Valley. Loftus going on to compete at a cross country in the afternoon as they wanted to consolidate a further team title. Scarborough won the women's team from Thirsk & Sowerby.
