

17TH APRIL 2012BUNNY RUN THREE – 'RUN FOR MY BUNNY'*3MILE/300FT

'I didn't think I was going to be able to keep that young whippet James at bay, he certainly gave me a run for my bunny, so to speak,' said now four times Bunny winner Tom Adams. The Egg Stage record holder, 29 year old Tom has made that race a procession, storming away from the off to win in 3.29 with ease for the seventh time. But it was U16 James Hall who lit up the night with another second place overall and a new U16 record, taking ten seconds off his own mark. He finished ten seconds down on Tom, but had U23 Yorkshire champion Fred Slemeck and four times BR winner Willy Smith in his wake. James now is the overall series winner and makes history by being the first BU16 to feature on the beer label and win a case of beer! Don't worry his dad Roger is ok with it. Seth Waterman again won the BU14, Andy Brown the V40, Alan Wright again the V50 and Steve Carter again the V60, while Malcolm Coles the V70. Katie 'Bunnygirl' Walshaw, fresh from finishing eighth on leg one of the National 6 Stage Road Relays at the weekend and the new Egg Stage record holder won that chocolate again for the eighth time in a fast 4.02. Katie is also equal top of the carrot with Kath Drake on nine BR wins now and looks certain to take that crown next year, while her photo will star on the series beer again for the third year. Durham Uni student Holly Page, third at Lads Leap the English championship race, finished second whilst Pendle race FU14 winner Elizabeth Greenwood took third. Kath Farquhar, Katies coach won the FV40 again, Margaret Jagan the FV60 again and 2010 FV50 English champion Gill Myers returned to win that chocolate category. See you all on Tuesday for the Bunny Relay Race, run around the long lap only, remember 7-30pm start!!
