

Yorkshire athletes became King and Queen at the 20th Daleside Brewery Auld Lang Syne race with 24 year old Tom Addison winning ahead of his cousin Mark Addison from 426 runners in wet and windy conditions, which included standing water in many places and two crossings of gushing Sladen Beck. Tom second last year to Olympic Triathlete Jonny Brownlee wasn't to be denied this time. 'I forgot about the race because it became a personal battle with Mark, and we switched the lead in to the wind. Mark set a fierce pace on the climb to Top Withins ruin, I was really hanging on there. But on the run to the trig point I recovered and knew I had to make my move on the descent knowing that Mark is a very strong finisher the nearer it gets to the end. Keeping myself upright on the boggy descent in to the beck was fun and on the final climb where Jonathan had got me last year I knew I had to keep it together. I was buzzing after wards what a way to end a year, there can't be a better one,' said winner Tom after wards. Eleven times winner Ian Holmes the V40 record holder finished third a minute behind, which shows even at 48 years old he can still hold his own with the best and is a true legend of fell running. GB orienteer Joe Mercer finished fourth, English and Yorkshire U16 fells champion Lewis Byram came fifth to finish first U18, former junior international Adam Peers is coming back to form finishing sixth and in seventh was U23 silver medalist William Neill showing the quality of the race. The V50 title went to John Mason – Annabel Mason's 'daddy', V60 Rob Taylor and V70 record holder Malcolm Coles took those titles. Bingley Harriers with Ian Holmes third, Tim Midgeley ninth and Paul Tiffany 18th won the men's team.

Queen of the race, Yorkshire lass, Holly Page from Calder Valley Fell Runners club thrived in the tough conditions and relished the slippery challenging descents to cross the line in 39th overall in 50.41. Holly is in the same breed as winner Tom Addison both having served their apprenticeship so to speak by competing in the junior Quarry Runs from here. Just nine seconds separated second and third ladies at the finish with Caitlin Rice proving the stronger in the closing stages. 'It wasn't until I returned back to the Pennine Way and the up coming runners were cheering and telling me I was second, that I realised I was in contention. I'm pants going downhill and down the waterlogged slippery slopes to the beck I was even walking, Caitlin passed me there, she's a great descender. On the way to the finish I had nothing left, but I'm really surprised to be third and so chuffed, because I haven't been back training that long from having a stress fracture. The worst thing was having to battle it out with a runner dressed as Donald Duck the duck won,' said Claire Green a Yorkshire Water manager. Sally Morley won the FV40's and the English and British champion Gill Myers the FV50. Despite the conditions 62 year old Aileen Baldwin from the Stainland Lions club set a new V60 record beating Margaret Jagan's 2008 time by 18 seconds. The FU18's race was won by 16 year old FU20 British bronze medalist Bronwen Jenkinson from the North Wales Eryri club. The Wharfedale ladies with Emma Hopkinson, 5th, Claire Pearson, 11th and Gill Myers, 12th, won the ladies team.

Olympic Triathlon Champion Alistair Brownlee the 2009 and 2011 race winner started the race and decided to run the course as a training run, taking care with his ankle. He set off well last, having taken time out after the runners had left West End Quarry to sign a few books and T. Shirts. 'It was like having a Ferrari pass you' was the comment made by several runners as Alistair stormed through the field to return in a little over 50 minutes. All fancy dress winners were rewarded with a gift pack of Daleside beer and once again fancy dress was in abundance as the runners celebrated the end of the year, with Alistair being the judge.
