

Second at the Yorkshire Cross Countries Jack Simpson new to the Bunnies finally found the right formula after finishing third at BR1 and second at BR2 to win at BR3 beating six times winner Tom Adams in a very quick 14.50 from a massive field of 338 runners. Tom had just made the dash through rush hour traffic after landing at Leeds Bradford Airport at 6.30pm to make the 7.30pm start line with his wife Joanne where they had been celebrating their wedding anniversary in Spain. The adrenalin was obviously still coursing through him as he stormed to his 12th Egg Stage win in 3.23, but couldn't deny Jack victory in the final stages. Second place here for Tom made him the series winner and he will finally find himself on the Bunny Beer label for 2015 along with Bunny Girl Katie Walshaw. Katie was overjoyed to finally make the Egg Stage record her own with a sizzling 3.56 time, taking three seconds off the record she shared with ' Scary ' Mary Wilkinson. Katie once again scared many of the male athletes finishing 19th overall in a fast 17.11 to record her 13th win. Katie was followed home by a string of talented youngsters, second Lizzie Greenwood, third Erica Byram, fourth Lucy Haines and fifth Victoria Merrick, the future looks very good here. Eighth overall was Gill Myers who once again broke the FV50 record by 21 seconds and has to be the most consistent Bunny record breaker, for good measure she won the FV50 series again, along with FV60 winner Aileen Baldwin. Spenborough athlete Natasha Geere won the FV40's, Ilkley's Lucy Haines the FU16 and Tegan Knappy the FU14 series, but FU14 Sunny Waterman had the BR3 victory. Behind Jack and Tom, Max Wharton finished third like last week while in fourth was Lancashire fell champion Rob Hope with Lewis Byram and Ian Holmes on his heels. Rob a six times winner at the Bunnies must be getting old because he stated, 'I haven't run that fast since visiting the Bunnies in 2003, that was far harder than the champs at Pendle.' Other category series winners were V40, Paul Tiffany, V50, Graham Bird, V60, Peter Jagan, U16, Matthew Merrick and U14, Oliver Rees. Once again that nights entertainment was enhanced by the video work of Abigail Knowles and Robert Adamson and then by Jack Simpson and Katie Walshaw doing the legendary chocolate throw out. Next week it's relay time any combination of team allowed if you are a Fancy Dress team judging will be on the start line at 7.20pm, start time is 7.30pm. Everyone must fill out an individual registration form, to help speed things along why not use the one off the website. See you there, remember the relay baton is an egg!
