

You all thought the challenge was to get round this years race, especially considering the mucky underfoot conditions and what felt like gale force winds along with horizontal rain at times. Well 18 year old junior international Tom Addison, with his dad Mike, and brothers Rory and Jos, first had to get out of a grid locked Kendal, why? Because the terrible weather had closed all the roads due to flooding. Somehow they managed to find a back road with no rising waters, although on the dual carriage way they had throw caution to the wind and brave flood waters with their vehicle. Luckily they arrived, but Jos did miss his junior race. As if Tom wasn't stressed enough, him being allocated race number one because of his win last year, and then being named the race favourite on the start line didn't deter this ambitious youngster, as he powered his way up to Oxenhope Stoop checkpoint. His only error in the race was on the skyline he turned off too soon for Top Withins ruin, anding up in the knee high tussocks and boggy terrain that is awaiting any foolish souls who think this is a shorter route. By the ruin he was back in third having allowed 2002 winner Steve Oldfield, and 1994 and 2000 winner Andrew Wrench to gain an advantage. The determined youngster soon caught V50 Steven, and finally caught V40 Andrew above Bronte Bridge, and from there used his speed to good effect to win by a minute from Andrew, with cousin Mark coming through for third. V50 Steve finished fifth to win the trophy picture for the third year running. V60 record holder Dave Tait won again, while Peter Duffy won the V70's. The mens team was an all Addison, Helm Hill affair, Tom first, Mark third and Tom's uncle Shaun, fiftieth: Toms dad Mike may have been in the team, had he not stopped to aid Shaun when he fell and dislocated his finger.

Lisa Lacon a black belt third dan in karate has now won the race three times, 2005, 2007 and 2008 and led from start to finish, although a tumble above Bronte Bridge left her with, in her words, 'the biggest scratch and bruise on my backside, it was a good fall I was proud of'. Leeds University student Lauren Jeska chased her all the way, but was still a minute adrift by the finish, but considering the 34 year old has only just taken up the sport, she has certainly made an impact, having won Blackshaw Head fell race earlier in the year. Finishing third was the effervescent and youthful Maureen Laney, the former World Masters champion, who also won the V50's title just fifteen seconds in front of Scotland's Kate Jenkins. The ladies team chocolate was won by Todmorden Harriers with Lauren Jeska, Kath Brierley, 5th, and Christine Preston, 7th. A regular visitor to Haworth Moor and its delights Chorley Harrier Jan Atkins won the over 60's award.

You thought you'd seen everything on the fells, but if you'd come early to watch the junior races, then nothing could have prepared you for seeing juniors scurrying around the Curly Wurly Quarry Runs some in the disguise of rats and rat catchers. Why you may ask, well it's all thanks to Precision Pest Management who kindly sponsored the race, hence they were newly named the Curly Wurly Rat Runs. Mike Ayers the director of the company certainly got into the spirit of the occasion by becoming King Rat for the day, with Kings robe, rat crown, giant rat staff and even a rat chewing on his brains (not a real one). This theme was carried through to the goody bags where the winning entry for the poster competition was adapted into a certificate for all the runners, many thanks to 11 year old Lorna Jo Nunwick of Helm Hill for her great design, enjoy the tin of Cadbury's Roses. A sugar mouse was also added into the goody bag along with the Curly Wurly, lollies, crisps and sweets. To kick off the races Karen Ballantine dressed as the Penistone Hill Pied Piper led the competitors into the quarry, before the fancy dress winners were picked. First off were fifty under 8's where Calder Valleys Sam Foster finished 1st ahead of Alex Robinson and Toby Kitching, Wharfadales Lucy Horrocks wasn't far behind in 4th overall, 2nd girl was Emily Cox in 7th and Abbey's Sasha Kitching just pipped Tegan Knappy for 3rd. Next out of the traps were 69 under 10, U12, U14 and U16 boys and girls all in one big race, the excitement is fever pitch and this is just from the parents as the runners climb out of the quarry and race off on their circuit. First back to climb out of the quarry again was last years winner and regular, Helm Hills U14, Rory Addison, with Josh Ferguson and Phil Done both U12's hot on his heels. In the U10's Luka Morus from Calder stayed a mere one second ahead of Keighleys William Routledge, although U8 girls record holder Lily McGuinness now under 10 beat them both to finish 9th overall, and headed all the other girls. Keighley and Craven dominated the U14 girls with Zara Knappy just ahead of Charlotte Cox, while Annie Roberts chased them down. So many families compete which is what the sport is all about, and in the Wharton household Issy Wharton was the star winning the GU12's, and in the Pickering household it was Sarah who finished 2nd U10 girl. In the 2 lap U16's race Sean Carey splashed round in 12.12 with Sam Richards and Daniel Furling 2nd and 3rd, for the girls it was Prestons Nichola Jackson followed by Minnie Mouse by name and by fancy dress, A.K.A. Emma Spencer with Hannah Godden 3rd.
