

'The end of the world must be nigh' because the shock of the day had to be the glorious sunny weather that bathed the 255 runners who massed in Penistone Hill Quarry for the 23rd annual Withins race, normally it's nowt like this. Six times English Fells Champion, Simon Bailey, ran away from the opposition from the off to record his second victory, his other being in 2005, the 34 year old crossed the line in 41.05 over three minutes clear of Nick Charlesworth. Nick retained the Withins V40 picture trophy and improved from 7th last year to second, Jack Wood just had the edge to overtake Gareth Hird for third. John Mason won the V50's, Andrew Corbishley the V60's and evergreen Malcolm Coles the V70's, while Wharfedale with Nick, second, Gareth, fourth and Dave Kirkham, seventh won the team. Horwich RMI Harrier Lindsey Brindle achieved one of her running ambitions by winning a Woodentop race, finishing sixteenth overall, Lindsey reversed the positions of last year where Rachel Chambers took the glory. Lindsey will now have the ladies trophy hanging on her wall alongside the Ben Nevis trophy which she won in September, what a late flurry to her season. Finishing third was Good Shepherd winner Gayle Sugden while Lynne Clough in fourth took the FV40's, Bingley's Aly Raw took the FV50's whilst FV60 record holder Aileen Baldwin won again. The ladies team was won by Calder Valley with Gayle Sugden third, Jo Buckley fifth and Lindsay Oldfield eighth. Thanks again to the great work of Robert Adamson and Abigail Knowles whose video footage entertained the runners at the prize giving at the Old Sun Hotel in Haworth.

The junior Rat Runs weren't as fortunate with the weather as rolling morning mist suddenly descended on to Penistone Hill, although this didn't detract from the enthusiasm and speed that these youngsters display. Once again lots of juniors ran in fancy dress especially in the U8 race with Zombies, pumpkins, skeleton's, witches, ghosts, evil fairies all racing it out. Out of the 56 runners Patrick Casey crossed the line first from Oliver Bailey with Zak Dimitrijevic third who had first girl Sylvie Smith on his heels. In the combined junior age group race, U14 Euan Brennan won from U12's Will and Alex Thompson while in fourth Briony Holt set a new GU14 and GU12 record of 6.39, taking out both GU12 Sarah Pickering's 2011 and GU14 Victoria Merrick's 2013 times. Alice Jones was also a record breaker taking out GU10 Abbey Mae Parkinson's 2007 record of 7.46, Abbey Mae is now a top elite class cyclist. In the other age groups Toby Middleton won the U10 from Sam Smith whilst Eve Hutchinson won the GU14. King Rat and sponsor, Mike Ayers of Precision Pest Management, led proceedings in his scary costume and was astounded by the amount of juniors who took up the challenge to run in fancy dress. The list of winners was immense all collecting a box of Celebrations, some of these runners even managed to also win prizes in their categories. Besides the juniors having a choice of prizes off the table all also received a signed photo of GB International Emma Clayton. As tradition dictates it all ended with the customary chocolate throw out which always rounds off an excellent day of racing.
