Comments:

Blakey Blitz 2019 - On a quiet day for fell racing in England, Blakey Blitz being the only fell race on the Three Peaks weekend it was busy on Blakey Ridge. Firstly our slightly unwelcome visitor, a thick clagg hanging over the moor, though with the last blow from storm Hannah, this was clearing by race start and had completely disappeared mid-race. On the roads we were treated to local cycling club Cleveland Wheelers hilly 25 mile time trial and a tractor rally. The Lion Inn hosted the registration, the fire was welcome on a chill day and also contributed some prizes so thank you, a lovely meal to be had at the Lion. The Blitz is a deceptive race, one ascent and two descents on the way out and of course one descent and two ascents on the way back including the last mile climb which is ready to catch those with not enough in reserve.

Come the race it was Lee Kemp of Topley AC who bossed the male category, easing home with 7 minutes to spare, in the womens race Cath Williamson like Lee made the race her own, placing third overall and within a minute of Scout Adkins course record a top class run. Paul Butler Scarborough AC was second and Ewan Sewell York Knavesmire placed third man. Victoria Sewell York Knavesmire place second women with Ella Towers third.

In the teams it was Scarborough AC in the womens competition ahead of NYMAC while a four way tussle in the mens competition saw Scarborough win out over Knavesmire followed by NYMAC and Winter Team champions Esk Valley Fell Club in fourth.

Thanks to the marshals who did an excellent job, race organiser Bob Lillie, timekeeper Sid Bolland and the Lion for hosting. Charitable donations this time to Marie Curie and Autism Plus. That concludes this years Winter Series. See you on Wednesday 1st May for the Dave Parry Lets Run Summer Fell Race Series with Gribdale Growler.
